A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dr. Gayle Vaughn-Wiles

The fall colors in Maine are outstanding! As we drive from one location to another I am in awe of the beauty. Just as nature is taking its course, so is the AOSHS Board. Unfortunately I missed the last board meeting in Wichita due to the death of mv mother. At that meeting a number of things took place. We have two new board members, Doug Kelsey and Bob Germaine. Doug will be assisting our treasurer, updating the membership database, and developing a business plan for AOSHS. Bob will be looking at how our money is being spent and the most economical methods of financial management. Ms. Monica Tiller is our new operations manager. Some of you may have spoken with her for one reason or another and have found she is very efficient and innovative. Just recently Monica had articles about her new position with AOSHS in several local publications as well as Stars and Stripes, DoDEA, and each of the military times (Air Force, Army, Navy, and Marine Corps). She also posted items on Facebook...check it out!

https://www.facebook.com/AOSHSArchive/and

https://www.facebook.com/groups/169980 156354700/

I am so excited about the work Kelley Germaine is doing with our webmaster Pete Lundrigan. Thanks to Kelley, Pete, and our treasurer, Stephen Abbott, you can now join the organization, pay your membership dues, and make donations online through PayPal. Voila! Guess what? We are also making advancements working with the "Bricks and Pavers". Two very important things are happening in this area: (1) Chris Kyrios is working closely with Dee Edwards on sizes and numbers of bricks and pavers as he negotiates with companies. (2) Ron Harrison is measuring spaces and designing areas to place portable units to house the bricks and pavers. It would be outstanding if we could have a portable unit on display at an upcoming reunion!

The Q has challenged us for at least one year. Nancy Bresell and Monica were successful in getting the fall edition published and distributed. Hopefully you received your copy. We are working on our goal of distributing the O electronically. Just think - you will be able to view the newsletter on your phone or computer, with more information and photos in color. We continue to work with various museums. Thanks to Lani Allanson-Donoho we have re- established our relationship with the U.S. Army Museum, even though they continue to work through their developmental challenges. Our partnership with the Museum of World Treasures in Wichita remains strong. We are sending the Dorothy Cox Collection to the Museum of the American Military Family. It is an extensive collection of her travels and artifacts of her career.

Jill Abbott has been working on the collection of "Memories" and has encouraged many people to give a written account of their DoDDS memories. Everyone has a story to tell... have we heard yours?

Volunteers play a vital part in our organization! On October 1-3, Kathy Brown and Judy Ertl drove to Wichita to spend 3 days working with Ron Harrison, Glenna Harrison, and Myrna Margraf. This team worked on shipments, inventories, and data entries. We can't give Kathy and Judy, along with Myrna and Glenna, enough kudos for their support, time, and energy.

Finally, I want to thank my Vice President, Tom Smith, for conducting the annual board meeting in Wichita during the week of September 6, 2016. Unfortunately, I was unable to attend the meeting and he graciously took care of AOSHS business on my behalf.

I am so thankful to be working with such a great group of people, working to keep the memories of our American overseas schools alive.

Beginning next summer, the Quarterly newsletter will be "going digital". This means that this issue and the Spring 2017 issue will be the last two issues to be printed, and will allow us to provide you, our valued members, "more bang for your buck". Members will each receive an access code that will allow you to connect to the online version of the Quarterly on our website at www.aoshs.org.

MORE CONTENT!

By going digital, we will not be limited by the number of pages, which always have to be in increments of four when printed to avoid any blank pages. We will be able to add more articles, more photographs, videos, allow you to share your own memories, and links to other online interests.

EASE OF ACCESS!

The Quarterly will be available to you anytime, anywhere, through your computer, iPad, or Smartphone.

MISSED AN ISSUE?

Not anymore! Back issues will also be accessible to download.

GOING PAPERLESS!

Americans use more than 90 million short tons of paper and paperboard every year. That is an average of 700 pounds of paper products per person per year. By going digital we are helping to save our environment.

YOUR DOLLARS BETTER SPENT!

Your memberships and donations will be better spent to support the maintenance, preservation, and growth of the archives.

COLOR!

Finally, we're saying goodbye to the gray (many of us can relate to that, right?) and hello to full, living color!

It is important that we have your updated contact information so that we will be able to make this transition as easy for you as possible. You should have received our returnable mailer by now that you can complete and send back to us. If not, or if you have any questions, please contact our office at aoshsoffice@sbcglobal.net or (316) 265-6837.

By Chris Kyrios, Brats Representative, AOSHS Board

The American Overseas Schools Historical Society (AOSHS) awarded the 2016 Dr. Tom Drysdale Memorial Scholarship to overseas Brat, senior Kyra Jones of Hohenfels High School, Hohenfels, Germany. Miss Jones' application, along with those of numerous other highly qualified applicants, was reviewed by a Scholarship committee from AOSHS and Overseas Brats. Miss Jones will be attending Vassar College, one of the nation's top liberal arts schools in the country. We wish her the very best.

Funding for this scholarship was initiated by brats attending the Overseas Brats Gathering in 2013 (i.e., the Brat Cause Of The Year). The fund has since grown and been adopted by donors of the Karlsruhe Alumni Association, the Colorado Brats Club, and merchandise sales at the DoDDS Worldwide Reunion XXVIII and Homecoming 2016.

For the 2016-2017 school year, AOSHS plans to award $3,000 in scholarships to active duty Brats at overseas schools. We are striving to award these scholarships annually, so developing ongoing funding is critical. Please help us in this endeavor by making a tax-deductible donation to the Dr. Tom Drysdale Scholarship Fund. If you have an upcoming school reunion or regional you might consider collecting donations at that event!

Please make checks payable to:

AOSHS
Attn: Scholarship Fund
704 W. Douglas Ave.
Wichita KS 67203

For further information please contact AOSHS Board Member, Chris Kyrios at kyriosc@yahoo.com. AOSHS looks forward to hearing about any fundraising ideas you or your school may have. Thank you for preserving the memory of Dr. Drysdale who was the visionary behind the American Overseas School Historical Society. AOSHS' mission is to collect and preserve the historical archival memorabilia of the entire American overseas school system, a unique chapter in the history of American education.

Visit AOSHS at www.aoshs.org

The AOSHS Board is beginning a membership campaign to increase our ranks by not only adding new members, but also by encouraging current members to renew. It is imperative that we increase our income as monthly expenses to keep the archives going are more than the current membership and donations provide. We have a new operations manager, Monica Tiller, who is also a DoDDS Brat, and we are actively recruiting Brats to become members of our organization. After all, DoDDS consists of students, administrators, and teachers, so our membership should reflect that. We always get some new members at our annual DoDDS Reunions, but the bulk of our membership income comes from renewals.

If you know someone who is not a member, either actively teaching or retired, or you have Brat relatives and friends, please encourage them to join AOSHS. The $25 (one year) or $45 (two years) dues, as well as donations, are tax deductible if one itemizes their taxes. Several members have been adding additional donation money to the operating fund when they renew. One suggestion is to give $1.00 for each year of your age. The Membership Application can be located online e at http://www.aoshs.org/index.php/forms/ and in this newsletter on Page 10.

We recently received the proceeds from a small insurance policy of a member who made AOSHS the beneficiary. If you have the wherewithal to include AOSHS as a beneficiary of your insurance or estate, that is extremely beneficial to our posterity. Help AOSHS preserve the heritage of our overseas schools and their memorabilia.

IN MEMORIAM

Philip Walter Hokanson July 30, 1042 – October 24, 2015

Philip Walter Hokanson was born in Colorado Springs, Colorado to parents who were pastors in the Assemblies of God Church in Calhan, Colorado. His family moved to other small towns in Colorado, Utah and Washington state. Frequent changes in both schools and churches were the norm, building close family relationships. Philip and his siblings always had part time jobs such as picking strawberries, delivering newspapers, and helping their father build houses. Even then, his family was conscious of conservation practices, often using reclaimed wood in their building projects.

Phil graduated from Brewster, WA high school and attended Seattle Pacific College where he earned a BA degree in mathematics education in 1965. During college, he worked at the Post Office before going to the Olympic Peninsula area to teach Native American students math. Later in his teaching career he earned a Master's Degree in Mathematics Education from the University of New Hampshire in 1979.

His career in the Department of Defense Dependents Schools began in 1970 in Ankara, Turkey. He also taught in Karamursel, Turkey, Frankfurt and Hanau, Germany, and Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. Later he became a Computer Adviser for the DODDS, first working in that capacity in Bermuda; later he was stationed in Seoul, South Korea, working with schools throughout the Pacific. In 1992, Phil accepted a position at DoDDS Headquarters in Virginia.

Phil was always involved with Worship and Service, enjoying singing in Military Chapels wherever he was stationed. He was involved in the production of musical programs and participated in Mission Trips. After his retirement in 2003, Phil continued working in his chosen church, and did not stop traveling regularly. Throughout his life he visited every continent except Antarctica. His siblings often teased him about being a bachelor to which he would say, "Marriage would interfere with my life style." His strong Christian faith was the foundation of his life of love and service.

The American Overseas Schools Historical Society Appoints New Operations Manager

Monica Maack Tiller, a long-time resident of Wichita, has been appointed as Operations Manager to oversee the American Overseas Schools Historical Society (AOSHS) Archives, a non-profit organization headquartered in the Delano District of the city. The Archives house a unique collection of materials and memorabilia from more than 584 closed American schools worldwide, largely established by the U.S. Department of Defense at the start of the Cold War.

Over the years, several million children of U.S. Military personnel and civilian American employees overseas attended these schools in countries across the globe, covering five continents and Oceania, and including countries such as China, Korea, Ethiopia, Saudi Arabia, England, Germany, and Panama, to name only a few. This collection tells an incredible story about how these schools came into being, how they operated as American schools inside and outside military installations around the world, and has among its artifacts yearbooks, banners, photographs, documentation, trophies and even a section of the Berlin Wall which can be seen at the Museum of World Treasures in Wichita, Kansas.

Monica, the daughter of a retired Command Master Chief in the U.S. Navy, was born on Guam and grew up on six different U.S. bases including Naval Communication Station in Wahiawa, Hawaii, and Naval Operating Base, Commander Alaskan Sea Frontier, Kodiak Island, Alaska; has lived in 12 homes as a military brat, and attended eight schools including high school near London, England. She attended Miami Dade College in Florida and Wichita State University in Wichita, Kansas, and worked for the Wichita Area Girl Scout Council before becoming a graphic designer. She has three daughters and two grandchildren.

Comments Monica:

"I am delighted to undertake the position of Operations Manager for this amazing organization which helps to preserve the history of our heritage since the end of World War II, and tells the unique stories of the several million children of U.S. military personnel and civilian employees who grew up attending schools outside the continental United States; and of the hundreds of educators employed by the Department of Defense Education Activity (DoDEA). I hope to assist our wonderful board members progress in their endeavor to bring awareness to this exceptional institution first established by its founder in 1989, Dr. Thomas Townsend Drysdale, Jr.; to increase visibility and membership, and to coordinate both donations of school items as well as legacy and funding donations."

FROM THE ARCHIVES

One of the treasures on display at the AOSHS archives is a portrait dedicated to Heidelberg Middle School alumna 2nd Lieutenant Emily J.T. Perez, which was donated to the school in her honor and which the archives received after the school's closing in 2013.

Emily Jazmin Tatum Perez (February 19, 1983 – September 12, 2006) was born in Heidelberg, West Germany where she also attended school. Upon graduation from high school in Maryland, Emily entered the U.S. Military Academy at West Point where she would become the highest-ranking African-American female cadet in the history of West Point as a Cadet Command Sergeant Major. Following graduation from West Point in 2005, she was commissioned a Second Lieutenant with the 204th Support Battalion, 2nd Brigade, 4th Infantry Division of the United States Army.

2nd Lieutenant Perez was deployed to Iraq in December 2005 as a Medical Service Corps officer. She was killed in action nine months later when a makeshift bomb exploded near her Humvee during combat operations in Al Kifl, near Najaf. At age 23, she was the first female graduate of West Point to die in the Iraq War and the first female African-American officer to die in combat. Her military awards include the Bronze Star, Purple Heart, Army Commendation Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Iraq Campaign Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, Army Service Ribbon, Overseas Service Ribbon, and the Combat Action Badge. She posthumously received the NCAA Award of Valor in 2008.

She is interred at the West Point Cemetery.

Dr. Linda Curtis, Principal Deputy Director of DoDEA Addresses Assembly at DoDDS Gathering in Spokane

At the DoDDS Worldwide Reunion XXVIII held in Spokane, Washington this past July, Master of Ceremonies for the banquet, Harry Stine, introduced Dr. Linda Curtis, Principal Deputy Director of the Department of Defense Education Activity (DoDEA), who gave the following speech as she shared her thoughts with the group on the 70th Anniversary of the school system:

"It is an honor and a pleasure to speak with you today and it's humbling to be able to share in this experience with you as you renew old friendships; reminisce about the "old" and "not-so-old" days; and discover new acquaintances that will create new bonds in the future.

I look out and see many familiar faces and names and it really brings home how amazing our global school system is and the importance of our work over the course of the last 7 decades!

Being here has a very special place in my heart because I am one of you. Like you, I am a teacher and an administrator. I've taught and been an administrator in our schools all over the world. I've experienced the homesickness and anxieties that come from being far away from home and I've cherished the amazing sights, experiences and most of all the colleagues, students and families I've met along the way.

What we all have got to be the most proud of is that we offered a piece of home in support of military and civilian families serving our country. There's no nobler mission or compassionate cause.

This year we celebrate the 70th Anniversary of the Department of Defense Schools. Over 70 years, the name of our school system has morphed and taken on several identities. We've also come a long way since the post-war days of 1946! Let's take a look at some "then and now" facts and statistics.

In 1946, the Dependent Schools Service (DSS) opened with 38 elementary schools and 5 high schools. Today, the Department of Defense Education Activity (DoDEA) has 168 schools, 42 of which are high schools.

In 1946, the DSS had an enrollment of 1,297 students. Seventy years later, more than 73,000 students attend DoDEA schools worldwide.

In 1946, the DSS employed 116 teachers. Today, more than 8,000 educators teach in DoDEA schools.

In 1946, the U.S. Forces, European Theater Information and Education Chief predicted that the U.S. Occupation Force would reach 300,000 in Europe, and that schools would serve 20,800 children, 5,000 of them in high school. During the 1960s, worldwide enrollment averaged 160,000 students.

In 1946, DSS obtained a $475,000 grant funded by the profits from Class VI liquor stores and established a moderate tuition per student to finance the schools. No tuition was charged for the lowest three enlisted grades; $4.00 per month for the top three enlisted grades and $8.00 per month for officers. Today, DoDEA schools are resourced with funds appropriated by Congress totaling approximately $1.9 billion.

From 1950 to 1956, there was a major school construction initiative in Germany. Seventy-eight schools were built with $20 million in war reparations from Germany. In 2010, DoDEA began a major $3.7 billion construction initiative to replace or make major renovations to more than 100 schools."

"The world today:

It's easy to look back at 1946 and focus on what appeared to be shortsightedness and prediction pitfalls for our school system. As many of you know, our schools have had to constantly adapt to a changing world environment. Our nation's military forces have taken on communism and terrorism. We've seen periods of national defense buildups, restationing, and base closures. Defense budgets have increased, decreased and stayed the same.

What doesn't change is DoDEA's commitment to military families and their school-aged children. The same compassion, dedication, concern, and commitment to excellence in teaching that began in the Quonset hut classrooms in Korea continues today in our state-of-the-art 21st Century schools across the globe.

The qualities of the pioneer DoDEA teachers who ventured far from home after World War II are the same qualities that you demonstrated in your classrooms over the last 7 decades and the same qualities you will see every day in our DoDEA schools of 2016.

Our schools were and still are a major quality of life factor for our military families. They deserve nothing but the best and regardless of the year, the global environment or the inevitable changes our nation has faced, we have been and we are a constant in military communities around the world in our classrooms. Take pride in that and know that there are thousands of families and students who are not just grateful over the past 70 years, but forever grateful.

Thank you for sharing this walk through history with me. Let's look forward to the path of the next 70 years!

Thank you for your dedication!"

Linda L. Curtis Principal Deputy Director, DoDEA

MEMORIAL PROGRAM FOR ALUMNI

We have had many names added to our THOSE NO LONGER WITH US paver, where friends or loved ones have sent a donation to remember a special person in their lives, but did not wish to purchase a brick or start a memorial fund.

Though this began as an educator remembrance, several of those recognized are alumni. Because of the increase in donations for this fund, we feel it appropriate to create a second paver specifically to recognize alumni. If friends wish to remember a deceased former student, send the honoree's name, school, and year of graduation (if appropriate), and it will be included in alphabetical order on the kiosk page which can be viewed by going to www.aoshs.org/kiosk, then clicking on the Interactive Kiosk link and following the directions.

To remember an alumna/alumnus in this way, send a check payable to the AOSHS Memorial Program at the address in column one, below. Please note the honoree's name on the check's memo line and include a note requesting that this person be honored on the ALUMNI MEMORIAL PAVER.

NON-PROFIT MEMBERSHIP PROGRAM

AOSHS welcomes new members to join us using this form. Please feel free to pass it along to friends and colleagues.

NOTE: Effective August 1, 2009, the Individual Life Membership Program was discontinued. With the cost of operations continually on the rise, this seemed be one of the economic moves to help us stay operational. Once we become life members, many of us forget that donations are still needed to help keep us afloat. Those of us who are life members are, of course, grandfathered in—ALL existing life memberships are still in place. The program simply has been closed to future new life memberships. So please, do not forget to send in a donation if you are able. You can use your birthday as a reminder, for example.

For those of you who have an annual membership, please renew on time or pay ahead of your due date so that your Quarterly newsletter is not discontinued. Just indicate of the form that you are paying before your expiration date.

Dues may be paid by check, money order, or credit card. PLEASE USE THIS FORM AS WELL TO UPDATE ALL OF YOUR CONTACT INFORMATION. It is important to keep us informed about address changes as the newsletter is not usually forwarded.
